A

A and B behavior, Types, differences in, in acute myocardial infarction (Gentry et al.), 1101
Abdomen, upper, surgery of, prevention and treatment of pulmonary complications in patients after (Breslin), 511
Abdominal bronchogenic cyst, symptomatic, mimicking acute ischemic heart disease (McGlynn, Burnside, and Gatenby), 109
Abuser, parenteral drug, with infective endocarditis, nursing management of (Guzman), 289
Adenoma, toxic, of thyroid gland, complete atrioventricular block, shock, and hyperkalemia induced by (Grenadier et al.), 105
American Association of Critical-Care Nurses
  Educational directory, 39, 228, 440, 616, 798, 1013
  News and announcements, 32, 218, 436, 609, 788, 1007
  President's message, 24, 214, 423, 608, 787, 1000
  Staff report, 31, 217, 435
Anaphylaxis and type I hypersensitivity from insect stings (Mazow, Grant, and Jackson), 133
Angina, variant: clinical spectrum, pathophysiology, and management (Kennedy), 1051
Antidepressant overdose, tricyclic, cardiac monitoring in (Greenland and Howe), 856
Aortic and branchial cuff pressures, comparison of, in flat supine and lateral recumbent positions (Newton), 821
Arrhythmia(s), chronic ventricular—major unresolved health problem: introduction (Fisch), 451 detection efficiency, comparative study of effects of documentation on (Breu and Gawlinski), 1058 prevalence, and significance of, during exercise (Faris and Morris), 644 Arrhythmias—cont'd ventricular, new drugs for treatment of (Heger, Prystowsky, and Zipes), 475 Artery disease, coronary, thallium myocardial scintigraphy and its use in assessment of (Pantaleo et al.), 61 pulmonary, and pulmonary capillary wedge pressure waveforms with respiratory variations, reading (Riedinger, Shellock, and Swan), 675
Asthma, tracheal tumor simulating, in child (Hurwitz and Conlan), 880
Atherosclerosis, exercise and coronary risk factor modification in management of (Fletcher), 811
Atrial pressure line, method of intraoperative placement of (Eufrate and Speroni), 88
Atrioventricular block, complete, shock, and hyperkalemia induced by toxic adenoma of thyroid gland (Grenadier et al.), 105
  dissociation (Bailey), 629
Auscultation, cardiac, in acute myocardial infarction (Spence and Lemberg), 901
Autotransfusion: current status (Emminizer, Klopp, and Hauer), 83

B and A behavior, Types, differences in, in response to acute myocardial infarction (Gentry et al.), 1101
Backrest position, effect of, on cardiac output measured by thermodilution method in acutely ill patients (Grose, Woods, and Laurent), 661
Balloon counterpulsation, intra-aortic, in acute myocardial infarction (Bitran et al.), 1021
Barriers of communication, one means of transcending: handholding (Knable), 1106
Bathing, hemodynamic and electrocardiographic responses to, and oxygen consumption in recent post–myocardial infarction patients (Johnston, Watt, and Fletcher), 666

*January-February, pp. 1-194; March-April, pp. 195-398; May-June, pp. 399-584; July-August, pp. 585-762; September-October, pp. 763-958; November-December, pp. 959-1166.

Behavior, Types A and B, differences in, in response to acute myocardial infarction (Gentry et al.), 1101 Block, complete atrioventricular, shock, and hyperkalemia induced by toxic adenoma of thyroid gland (Grenadier et al.), 105 fascicular, and acute myocardial infarction (Arcebal and Lemberg), 717 left bundle branch, and acute myocardial infarction (Arcebal and Lamberg), 532 Blood gas syringe, new versatile (Petty and Bailey), 672 pressure control, high, status of, in California: preliminary report of statewide survey (Leonard, Igra, and Hawthorne), 255
Bone marrow, transplantation of: graft-vs.-host disease (Rice et al.), 897
Books and audiovisual teaching material, reviews, of, 145, 340, 549, 726, 908, 1116
Brachial cuff and aortic pressures, comparison of, in flat supine and lateral recumbent positions (Newton), 821
Bronchogenic cyst, symptomatic abdominal, mimicking acute ischemic heart disease (McGlynn, Burnside, and Gatenby), 109
Bronchoscopy, fiberoptic, in intensive care unit (Stevens, Lillington, and Parsons), 1037
Bundle branch block, left, and acute myocardial infarction (Arcebal and Lemberg), 532
Burn care, nurse retention in: report of 14 years' experience (Jones et al.), 295

Calculator technique, simple programmable, for dosage determination and administration of drugs by continuous infusion (Lamb et al.), 72
California, status of high blood pressure control in: preliminary report of statewide survey (Leonard, Igra, and Hawthorne), 255
Capillary wedge and artery, pulmonary, pressure waveforms with respiratory variations, reading (Riedinger, Shellock, and Swan), 675
Carcinoma, esophageal, and problems in swallowing (Bachrach, Boyce, and Jackson), 525
Cardiac auscultation in acute myocardial infarction (Spence and Lemberg), 901 electrical activity, electrophysiologic basis for: normal and abnormal (Bailey), 455 life support team, advanced, Mega-Code for training (Kaye et al.), 860 monitoring in tricyclic antidepressant overdose (Greenland and Howe), 856 output measured by thermodilution method in acutely ill patients, effect of backrest position on (Grose, Woods, and Laurent), 661

Critically ill patient, simplified concept of complete physiological monitoring of (Vij, Babcock, and Magilligan), 75
Cues, preventive health, types of, given to high-risk individuals (Lovvorn), 520 Cuff, brachial, and aortic pressures, comparison of, in flat supine and lateral recumbent positions (Newton), 821 pressures, tracheal tube, measuring—tool and technique (Bouvier), 686
Cyst, symptomatic abdominal bronchogenic, mimicking acute ischemic heart disease (McGlynn, Burnside, and Gatenby), 109

Death, sudden, in six-month postinfarction period (Cooper and Lemberg), 139

Degree, incidence, and duration of postcardiotomy delirium (Sadler), 1084
Dehydrogenase, lactate, and creatine kinase isoenzymes, diagnostic assessment of myocardial infarction based on (Roberts), 486
Delirium, postcardiotomy, incidence, degree, and duration of (Sadler), 1084
Detection efficiency, arrhythmia, comparative study of effects of documentation on (Breu and Gawlinski), 1058
Diabetic ketoacidosis—treatment appraisal (Walter and Warsaw), 112 Diagnosis of myocardial infarction, enzymes in: editorial (Galen), 484 in patients with permanent pacemakers. Part I (Arcebal and Lemberg), 1111 and treatment—Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome (Prystowsky, Heger, and Zipes), 465 Diagnostic method, Schamroth's, clubbing of fingers with special reference to (Blumsohn), 1069
Differences in Types A and B behavior in response to acute myocardial infarction (Gentry et al.), 1101 Disease, acute ischemic heart, symptomatic abdominal bronchogenic cyst mimicking (McGlynn, Burnside, and Gatenby), 109 coronary artery, thallium myocardial scintigraphy and its use in assessment of (Pantaleo et al.), 61 graft-vs.-host: transplantation of bone marrow (Rice et al.), 897 Disorders, respiratory, during sleep. Part II (Block), 90
Dissociation, atrioventricular (Bailey), 629
Dobutamine, new inotropic drug (Huss et al.), 121
Documentation, comparative study of effects of, on arrhythmia detection efficiency (Breu and Gawlinski), 1058
Dopamine-nitroprusside therapy, combined, physiologic basis for, in post-myocardial infarction heart failure (Dracup, Breu, and Tillisch), 114
Dosage determination and administration of drugs by continuous infusion, simple programmable calculator technique for (Lamb et al.), 72
Dracup, Kathleen, new Nurse Editor (Alspach and Weinberg), 51
Drug(s) abuser, parenteral, with infective endocarditis, nursing management of (Guzman), 289 administration of, by continuous infusion and dosage determination, simple programmable calculator technique for (Lamb et al.), 72 effects of, on electrocardiogram—reference chart (Duke), 698 intravenous, used in treating hypertensive emergencies (Ginkus-O'Connor), 848 new inotropic, dobutamine (Huss et al.), 121 for treatment of ventricular arrhythmias (Heger, Prystowsky, and Zipes), 475

E

Ectopy, ventricular, vs. aberrant ventricular conduction, study of (Martell and Schamroth), 886
Editor, founding, new role for: Alfred Soffer, MD (Weinberg and Alspach), 49
new Nurse, Kathleen Dracup (Alspach and Weinberg), 51
Efficiency, arrhythmia detection, comparative study of effects of documentation on (Breu and Gawlinski), 1058
Electrical activity, cardiac, electrophysiologic basis for: normal and abnormal (Bailey), 455
Electrocardiogram, effects of drugs on—reference chart (Duke), 698
Electrocardiographic and hemodynamic responses to bathing and oxygen consumption in recent post-myocardial infarction patients (Johnston, Watt, and Fletcher), 666 study of myocardial infarction (Barrett and Schamroth), 131 Electrocardiography, dynamic, grand mal epilepsy as recorded during (Schamroth, Davidoff, and Myburgh), 696
Electrolyte intake, electrolyte excretion, and hypertension (Langford), 269
Electrophysiologic basis for cardiac electrical activity: normal and abnormal (Bailey), 455
Emergencies, hypertensive, intravenous drugs used in treating (Ginkus-O'Connor), 848 treatment of (Finnerty), 275
Endocarditis, infective, parenteral drug abuser with, nursing management of (Guzman), 289
Endotracheal suctioning, oxygen insufflation during (Langrehr, Washburn, and Guthrie), 1028
Enzymes in diagnosis of myocardial infarction: editorial (Galen), 484
Epidemiology of hypertension as guide to treatment and control (Borhani), 245
Epilepsy, grand mal, as recorded during dynamic electrocardiography (Schamroth, Davidoff, and Myburgh), 696
Errata, 142, 722, 727, 1072
Esophageal carcinoma and problems in swallowing (Bachrach, Boyce, and Jackson), 525
Excretion and intake, electrolyte, and hypertension (Langford), 269
Exercise and coronary risk factor modification in management of atherosclerosis (Fletcher), 811 detection, prevalence, and significance of arrhythmias during (Faris and Morris), 644
Extrasystoles, ventricular, potential idioventricular tachycardia simulating (Blumsohn and Schamroth), 708

F

Factors associated with prognosis of acute myocardial infarction, population-based study of (Goldberg et al.), 833
Failure, multiple systems, systems approach to nursing patient with (Maher), 866 post-myocardial infarction heart, physiologic basis for combined nitroprusside-dopamine therapy in (Dracup, Breu, and Tillisch), 114
Family-oriented interdisciplinary program—rehabilitation of patients after acute myocardial infarction (Segev and Schlesinger), 841
Fascicular block and acute myocardial infarction (Arcebal and Lemberg), 717
Fiberoptic bronchoscopy in intensive care unit (Stevens, Lillington, and Parsons), 1037
Fingers, clubbing of, with special reference to Schamroth's diagnostic method (Blumsohn), 1069

G

Gas syringe, new versatile blood (Petty and Bailey), 672

Gland, thyroid, toxic adenoma of, complete atrioventricular block, shock, and hyperkalemia induced by (Grenadier et al.), 105
Graft-vs.-host disease: transplantation of bone marrow (Rice et al.), 897
Grand mal epilepsy as recorded during dynamic electrocardiography (Schamroth, Davidoff, and Myburgh), 696

H

Handholding: one means of transcending barriers of communication (Knable), 1106
Health cues, preventive, types of, given to high-risk individuals (Lovvorn), 520 problem, major unresolved—chronic ventricular arrhythmias: introduction (Fisch), 451 Heart disease, acute ischemic, symptomatic abdominal bronchogenic cyst mimicking (McGlynn, Burnside, and Gatenby), 109 failure, post–myocardial infarction, physiologic basis for combined nitroprusside-dopamine therapy in (Dracup, Breu, and Tillisch), 114
Hematoma formation, effects of alternative techniques of low-dose heparin administration on (Brenner, Wood, and George), 657
Hemodialysis, identifying high-risk patient on: hypotensive crises (Williams), 309
Hemodynamic and electrocardiographic responses to bathing and oxygen consumption in recent post–myocardial infarction patients (Johnston, Watt, and Fletcher), 666
Heparin administration, low-dose, effects of alternative techniques of, on hematoma formation (Brenner, Wood, and George), 657 can, cause clotting? (Rice and Jackson), 331 Hospitals with critical care units, characteristics of, part I. Survey of critical care nursing practice (Disch), 1047
Hyperkalemia, complete atrioventricular block, and shock induced by toxic adenoma of thyroid gland (Grenadier et al.), 105
Hypersensitivity, type I, and anaphylaxis from insect stings (Mazow, Grant, and Jackson), 133
Hypertension, electrolyte intake, and electrolyte excretion (Langford), 269 epidemiology of, as guide to treatment and control (Borhani), 245 Hypertensive emergencies, intravenous drugs used in treating (Ginkus-O'Connor), 848
treatment of (Finnerty), 275
patients, screening, for surgically reversible causes—unsettled issues (Yamauchi), 261
Hypotensive crises: identifying high-risk patient on hemodialysis (Williams), 309

I

Idioventricular tachycardia, potential, simulating ventricular extrasystoles (Blumsohn and Schamroth), 708
Infarction, acute myocardial, cardiac auscultation in (Spence and Lemberg), 901 differences in Types A and B behavior in response to (Gentry et al.), 1101 and fascicular block (Arcebal and Lemberg), 717

Infarction, acute myocardial—cont'd intra-aortic balloon counterpulsation in (Bitran et al.), 1021 and left bundle branch block (Arcebal and Lemberg), 532 population-based study of factors associated with prognosis of (Goldberg et al.), 833 rehabilitation of patients after—interdisciplinary family-oriented program (Segev and Schlesinger), 841 unusual complication of (Nissen and Lemberg), 336 heart failure, post–myocardial, physiologic basis for combined nitroprusside-dopamine therapy in (Dracup, Breu, and Tillisch), 114 myocardial, diagnosis of, in patients with permanent pacemakers. Part I (Arcebal and Lemberg), 1111 diagnostic assessment of, based on lactate dehydrogenase and creatine kinase isoenzymes (Roberts), 486 electrocardiographic study of (Barrett and Schamroth), 131 enzymes in diagnosis of: editorial (Galen), 484 patients, recent post–myocardial, oxygen consumption and hemodynamic and electrocardiographic responses to bathing in (Johnston, Watt, and Fletcher), 666 period, six-month post-, sudden death in (Cooper and Lemberg), 139
Infective endocarditis, parenteral drug abuser with, nursing management of (Guzman), 289
Infusion, continuous, administration of drugs by, and dosage determination, simple programmable calculator technique for (Lamb et al.), 72
Inotropic drug, new, dobutamine (Huss et al.), 121
Insect stings, type I hypersensitivity and anaphylaxis from (Mazow, Grant, and Jackson), 133
Insufflation, oxygen, during endotracheal suctioning (Langrehr, Washburn, and Guthrie), 1028
Intake and excretion, electrolyte, and hypertension (Langford), 269 Intensive care unit, fiberoptic bronchoscopy in (Stevens, Lillington, and Parsons), 1037 neurologic, computer-guided neurologic assessment in (Ropper et al.), 54 observation on computers in (Beckmann, Cammack, and Harris), 1055
Intraoperative placement of atrial pressure line, method of (Eufrate and Speroni), 88
Ischemic heart disease, acute, symptomatic abdominal bronchogenic cyst mimicking (McGlynn, Burnside, and Gatenby), 109
Isoenzymes, creatine kinase, and lactate dehydrogenase, diagnostic assessment of myocardial infarction based on (Roberts), 486

K

Ketoacidosis, diabetic—treatment appraisal (Walter and Warsaw), 112

L

Lactate dehydrogenase and creatine kinase isoenzymes, diagnostic assessment of myocardial infarction based on (Roberts), 486
Letters to editors, 143, 543, 723, 906

Life support team, advanced cardiac, Mega-Code for training (Kaye et al.), 860
Line, atrial pressure, method of intraoperative placement of (Eufrate and Speroni), 88
